From the President

It's almost time for the quilt show. Be sure to show up and help in any way that you can. All our preparations will make this another great show. The quilts, large and small; the props, the bazaar and silent auction; everything that we have worked on all year. I've been thinking about what dessert to make to bring to the quilt show. Maybe this would be a good time to try a new recipe? Enjoy your holiday weekend and see you at the meeting.

Quilt Show 2010

Sign up sheets will be available for the different jobs for the quilt show and also for the kitchen.

If you have a Home Tweet Home block and have not given NJ the measurements and your name please do so.

If you have a 2 1/2" strip quilt please let NJ know.

Be sure that the bottom section of the quilt form is pinned to your quilt show entry on the back of the quilt or item in the lower right hand corner if it is not we will have extra forms for you to fill out and pin on, no other identification will be allowed (except for the crazy quilt items but you still need to put you name on it) If you could please bring the quilt folded with the paper showing it will go quicker and be easier for those that are doing the checking in process.

Don't forget to bring in your Silent Auction and Bazaar items or let the people in charge know that you will be bringing something in so they can plan accordingly.

Thank you for all your help only about a month and the show will be here.

Library News

As librarian, Dorothy R is in the process of compiling a list of the books and videos in our library. There are a number of books and one video that were checked out between March, 2002 and September, 2009, which have not been returned. With the assistance of Lavonne B, the books on hand have been inventoried and these books and video were not found: "Alice's Tulips," a paperback novel by Sandra Dallas; "Best Selling Patchwork," author not on card; "Big 'n Easy Mini Quilts" by Christiane Nunier, "Christmas Cupboard" by Lynette Jenson and Jean Lepper; "Christmas Scrapcrafts" by Maggie Malone; "Farmhouse Quilts-Wandering Star" by Glenda She; "Favorite Redwork Designs," author not on card; "Great American Quilts 1988" by Sandra L. O'Brien; "Great American Quilts 1992" by Sandra L. O'Brien; "Kansas City Star Quilts" by Kansas City Star; "Kansas Trouble," author not on card; "Liberty Homestead 25th Anniversary" by Liberty Homestead; "Needlework Sewing" by Amanda O'Neill; "Nine Patch Design," author not on card; "Nine Patch Pizzazz" by Judy Sisneros; "Redwork, Quilts & More," author not on card; "Scrap Mania," author not on card; "Silk Ribbon Embroidery," author not on card; "Through the Garden Gate" by Jean & Valori Wells; and "Crazy Quilting," a video, author not on card. Dorothy would appreciate it very much if you would check your personal library, etc. as soon as possible to see if any of these have been inadvertently placed there and forgotten. If you have one of these books and are still working on a project from it, Dorothy requests that you just give her the name of the book and the author so Dorothy can include it on her inventory. Thank you!

Friendship Block Winner

Karen G

I was so excited to win the friendship quilt but I have to admit a little panicked also with thoughts running through my head like, "can I get it done", "it is close to quilt show time and we are all busy", etc. I decided to go for it because the opportunity doesn't happen often. I picked a very easy pattern composed of 4- patches, half-square triangles and larger pieces. As you know, piecing isn't my thing and I'm not very good at it so it had to be an easy pattern that I thought I could finish. The fabric is a Moda Migration collection of sage greens, browns, tans and reds. In the past, I have concentrated more on appliqué and crazy quilting.

My late husband, David, and I had 4 children between us (none together) and they are all grown. The oldest, Mike, and his wife, Huong, live in St. Louis and are expecting a son, Sammy, the first week of November. Matthew is still single and is in the Air Force now stationed in Boise, ID. Justin is still single and living in Slater. Sandi is married to Sean M and they have four children, Evie, John, Tabitha and Moshe, and they live in Kelso, WA. I retired from the Office of Administration, State of Missouri, several years ago and love being retired. I appreciate all of you and thank you in advance for making one of my blocks.

Quilt show 2011: Before the regular meeting, President S is going to list all the job titles for next years quilt show, hoping individuals will volunteer to do sub-jobs instead of chairing the entire event.

On August 20th, MO Tourism will be at the MO State Fair, and our guild will be in attendance. Kathryn J talked to Marilyn Russell, from Columbia's Quilt Guild. Our guild will do a presentation in April at their meeting and then they will reciprocate.
