From the President

The quilt show was beautiful. Thanks to everyone for all their hard work, wonderful quilts, and great props. Karen did a terrific job.

Now we can get back to making quilts and getting ready for Christmas. There is no down time for quilters, always something we want to work on and finish.

We are sure having nice weather, but we could sure use some rain.

Quilt Show Report

The Country Patchwork Quilt Guild held its 24th quilt show this past weekend. Despite the economy, the two day show was well attended with approximately 495 in attendance. People came from all over Missouri and also from Kansas, Montana, Florida, Mississippi, Texas, New York, Oklahoma, and Iowa. Karen Guthrie, QS 2011 Chairman, expressed appreciation to the community for its support of the show. Several businesses in Marshall support the show, including Heartland Medical Equipment, KMMO Radio, Victorian Rose Floral and Gifts, Springwater Nursery, Windjammer Cable TV, Marshall Democrat News, Marshall Chamber of Commerce, the staff of the Salt Fork YMCA, Alpha Sigma Phi Fraternity, and the Marshall Tourism Commission. Without continued support from the community, the show would not be as successful. A new addition this year was music provided by Eric Crump and Joe Graham which was enjoyed by those in attendance.

The crowd was in awe of the quilts designed and quilted, either by machine or hand, that were exhibited by the guest artist, Mildred Sorrells, from Illinois. Millie said she greatly enjoyed all the people she met and visited with. She and her husband live on a farm and farmed most of their earlier lives so she felt right at home in our agricultural community. Millie has won 122 awards at quilt shows across the United States and was very willing to explain the techniques she has developed and her quilting secrets with other quilters. She said she is inspired most by the designs in older quilts that give her ideas for a new design.

The antique bed turning was a huge success narrated by Betty L with Kathryn J and Millie M assisting. Antique quilts, some dating back to the 1800's were exhibited by Ellie B, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan B, Betty Sue S, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M, Sarah D, Marlyn M and Betty L. All of these quilts had stories to tell and viewers learned what was known of these stories as each quilt was shown.

At the crazy quilt booth, a free pattern was given away and illustrations of the step by step process to construct a crazy quilt block were demonstrated. Materials to get a person started in this type of quilting were also offered. Several attendees took advantage of this experience.

Appraisal service was offered by Ann Hazelwood, American Quilters Society appraiser, from St. Charles. She appraised several quilts for individuals and also answered questions to help date fabric; how to clean antique quilts. Ann is an author of books all about Missouri life and her books were available for sale

The raffle quilt, "Oh My Stars", was won by Jill M of Slater. This quilt was designed by Michael M and made by members of the guild and then hand quilted by the members. The three fat quarter baskets of fabric were won by Andy M of Dover, Linda O from Columbia and Amy M from Marshall.

The 2011 Viewers' Choice ribbons awarded in three categories were as follows: Large Quilt: "All Creatures Great and Small" by Karen G; Small Quilt: "Tsunami Memorial Quilt" by Norma Jeane F; and Crazy Quilt: "Blueberries and Cream" by Karen G.

Plans are underway for the 25th anniversary show next year.

Thanks again everyone!

Karen

Friendship Block Winner

I am married to my husband Dean, we have one son and daughter-n-law. I have two granddaughters and four great-grandsons.

My grandma was the one who got me interested in quilting when we moved to Windsor from St. Louis.

I also like to work with plants. I belong to the Cheerful Tillers Garden Club, Missouri Master Garden Club of Pettis County.

I also have a doll collection and enjoy looking for antiques.

For my friendship quilt, I have decided on the Log Cabin block with dark colors of navy blue and it will be paper pieced.

Thank you.
